Each question has the possibility of two points:

1. One point will be awarded for each complete title exactly as it appears on the official booklist (punctuation excluded). Answers with any deletions will not earn a point. The only exception will be if a title begins with the word "A" or "The" the scorers will count it correct whether or not the word "A" or "The" is included. Judges will ignore additions.
2. Another point will be awarded for each correct author exactly as it appears on the official booklist (punctuation excluded). A team cannot earn a point for the author's name unless the title has been stately correctly. Author's names with any deletions will not earn a point. Judges will ignore additions.
